

ODDITIES IN THE NEWS ALL OVER THE WORLD

Short Stories of Unusual Happenings and Singular Experiences Picked Out of the Chronicles of the Day.

A strange woman called on a daughter-in-law of Mrs. Antonio Fuerst, Waverly avenue and Klipp street, Newark, and left a necklace and cross of gold she said had been given to her ten years ago by a dying woman to be restored to its owner, whose name she had just learned was Fuerst. It did not belong to the young woman, but she learned it was lost twenty-seven years ago by Mrs. Antonio Fuerst, who had forgotten about it.

NO TROUBLE TO MOVE; MOUSE IS GOING, TOO.

The Gottschalk family, in Bloomfield, N. J., is to move from Glenwood avenue to Second and Thomas streets, but they will not leave the house. It is to be moved from where it has stood for fifty years, and they will remain in it. The house has been bought by Miss Mary Conlon, who is to move it. She granted the family permission to remain in it. The transfer across town will take ten days.

MOTHER'S TENDER CARE CAUSED BABY'S DEATH.

Mrs. Sarah Schumann, of No. 81 Leonard street, Williamsburg, fearing her one-month-old son, Hyman, would catch cold, tucked the covering closely around his head when she put him in his crib. When she awoke, yesterday, the child was dead. The covering got over its head and suffocated it, the doctor said.

BRAZIL WANTS DRAGON FLIES TO END MOSQUITO PEST.

To aid in exterminating mosquitoes, the Brazilian Government is having dragon flies caught here and shipped, and many of the "devil's damning needles" are being captured in the Bronx.

The dragon fly is one of the worst enemies the mosquito has. Those engaged in snaring them for the Brazilian Government are mostly Columbia students.

MAN HE BUMPED AGAINST WAS LONG-LOST BROTHER.

Bumping into a well-dressed man and forcing him into the gutter, Councilman Victor Carlson, at Waterbury, Conn., stopped to apologize.

The offended man proved to be his brother August, of Holse, Idaho, whom he had not seen or heard from in twenty-two years.

BROOKLYN CAT HAS SIAMESE QUARTET.

Tabby, a Siamese cat, owned by Mrs. Grinnell, No. 268 Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn, gave birth to four kittens, perfectly formed, but bound to one another by hindlegs. Three other kittens that came at the same time had seven toes on each forefoot. The freaks attracted so much attention Mrs. Grinnell drowned them.

GIANT RATS HAVE THE WHOLE VILLAGE AFRAID.

Armies of giant rats, forced by hunger to desert a closed tannery, have intimidated the inhabitants of Great Bend, Pa. The rodents kill grown chickens, and all the cats are afraid to tackle them.

Will Urge a Vacation Law.

Gov. Hughes will be asked by the representative of labor to send a special message to the Legislature, urging it to enact a law to give all city employees, including laborers, a summer vacation. A similar bill was vetoed by the Mayor because it was alleged it had been imperfectly drawn.
